In 2014, substance use cost British Columbia $4.9 BILLION, which amounts to $1,050 per person, regardless of age.

Compared to $38.4 billion or $1,081 per person in Canada.

Overall costs by substance in 2014 (in millions):
- Alcohol: $1,935 (40%)
- Tobacco: $1,270 (26%)
- Cannabis: $402 (8%)
- Opioids: $278 (5%)

Per person costs by substance over time:
- Alcohol: $0 (2007) to $0 (2014)
- Tobacco: $100 (2007) to $100 (2014)